

ICE: In Case of Emergency

The ICE Emergency Information Program provides first responders with vital information necessary to deliver the best emergency medical care for all. To use the ICE program in your home all you need to do is place the red ICE sticker on a window near the front door. Fill out the ICE Medical and Contact Information Form on the other side, fold and insert into the red magnetic envelope. Place the magnetic envelope on your refrigerator door.